

Roman Lager

Don't ever call a Roman Lager just another Pilsner beer. Because this mild and pleasant thirst-quencher has a fruity nose. The mildly malty attack transitions into a slightly bitter finish. We have been brewing this beer in our coppers since 1945.

Tasting

Nose/aromas: Discreet, but clean nose with hints of malt and hops, clear presence of fruits in the aroma.

Flavour: A refreshing mouthfeel, a nice malty attack which seamlessly transitions into subtle bitter hops and a fresh, slightly bitter finish. 5.0%
